CUSTOMIZED SAFARI CHARGES

Experienced Chimhavira staff will assist our guests in creating your customised Safaris for a ZAR 2,000 fee. Once a Safari is agreed and booked the fee will then be deducted from the total Safari cost and will be shown as such in the final invoice.

Should a Safari not be booked through Chimhavira the fee will not be refunded and will be charged out as an administration fee.

In order for Chimhavira to tailor your trip to your specifications please answer the following questions, they really do help:

When are you planning to travel?.....
(Perhaps you have specific dates; perhaps you're totally flexible, perhaps interested in looking at seasonal advantages)

How much time do you have available?.....
(Do you have a few weeks or are you looking at squeezing in a few activities over a day or so?)

What is your budget?.....
(If you haven't set one then what style of trip are you considering... moderate, luxury...is comfort more important than economy or do you need to keep your budget very tight, help us to help you on this)

Have you done a similar type of trip before?.....

(Perhaps you're a first timer to Africa, perhaps a lifelong resident...either way an idea of your experience might help us offer you better suggestions.)

Do you have any specific interests that we need to take into account?.....

.....
(Wildlife, birds, scenery, walking safaris, canoe trails, photography, adventure options, extreme sports, focus on culture etc)

Specific destinations?.....

.....
(Our focus ranges from specific activities in Victoria Falls, Desert trips, photographic destinations to a much wider set of locations and covering the Southern African region)

Is this trip a celebration of sorts?.....

(Perhaps an anniversary, honeymoon, birthday, graduation, retirement, family reunion or a simple indulgence maybe?)

Are international or regional airfares needed?.....

.....
(Local charters and regional flights are easy for us, we also offer international airfares out of the UK and USA)
